1. Read at least one book per week to receive the prize of the week. One designated prize per week.
2. Receive an end of summer reading raffle ticket by: making a BINGO (by filling one row, column or diagonal), completing the entire form or attending a program. Forms must be handed in when completed. You may have more than one bingo form.
3. We have copies of the Salem School's bingo forms if patrons need them. You can put the same book titles that you read for the library on the school's form to hand in to the school in the fall. The school allows more than one bingo form to be handed in.
