STEM Training On the JOB

An OJT contract must be in place with the employer before you start!

Looking for a STEM Career in Manufacturing, Engineering or Information Technology?

Do you have an interest in a STEM position but have limited skills?
Need to upgrade existing STEM skills?
Could you benefit from On-the-Job Training?

Find out more by attending the "Breaking Into the STEM Workforce" Workshop offered in Danielson, New London, Norwich and Williamantia. Visit the Front Desk for a copy of this month's workshop calendar.

The EWIB's On-The-Job Training programs provide incentives for employers in the form of wage reimbursements that may help you get hired.

Depending on the OJT Program, to qualify, you must be a CT resident, and:

- Unemployed (long term 27+ weeks) AND/OR
- Attended a Dept. of Labor Enhanced Re-employment Session (ERS) AND/OR
- A Certified Dislocated Worker

- Sample STEM Careers:
- CNC Machinist
 - Computer Support Technician
 - HVAC Technician
 - Web Developer
 - Network Administrator
 - Metal Fabricators & Fitters
 - Business Systems Analyst
 - Quality Assurance Inspector
 - Database Administrator
 - Computer Aided Designer
 - Machine Operator
 - Security and Fire Alarm Installer
 - Systems Administrator
 - Plant Operator
 - Mechanical Engineer
 - Manufacturing Manager

Once you are pre-qualified for eligibility in the OJT Program, let employers know they may qualify for 50% to 90% reimbursement of your wages while you train on the job for an average of 16 weeks.

If you already have a STEM background, contact:
Susan Lewis,
STEM Specialist
860-788-6222,
lewis@ewib.org

If you are interested in an entry-level STEM job, contact:
Dave Kennedy,
OJT Case Manager
860-319-1835,
dkennedy@twbe@ct.gov

For general questions about OJT Programs, contact:
Tim Murney,
OJT Job Developer
860-235-7348,
murneyt@ewib.org

These programs are funded in whole, or in part, by the U.S. Department of Labor Employment & Training Administration through the Job-Driven National Emergency Grant and Ready To Work OJT programs. The Job-Driven National Emergency Grant and Ready To Work OJT programs are equal opportunity employer programs, and auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities.
